

INTRODUCING THE SUMMER PENN/CASE ADVANCEMENT INTERNSHIP

Interested in higher-ed advancement? Learn from experienced professionals!

The Office of Development and Alumni Relations at the University of Pennsylvania is partnering with the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE– www.CASE.org) to host The Penn/CASE Advancement Internship program, which seeks to increase and diversify the number of professionals in educational advancement. (i.e. fundraising, alumni relations, advancement services, communications, and marketing)

This program is designed to attract students (undergraduate and graduate) who may not have previously considered a career in institutional advancement.

WHO: Penn undergraduate and graduate students.

WHAT: An eight-week summer internship program. This year, the internship will be hosted by Penn Medicine Development and Alumni Relations.

WHEN: Monday, June 3 – Friday, July 26, 2024 *

Interns will receive:

- Hands-on educational advancement experience at a premier institution
- Compensation for the duration of the internship ($5,000)
- All-expense paid three-day training in Washington, D.C. (June 23-25, 2024)
- Select book from the CASE bookstore
- Mentor from your host institution
- Matched up with a CASE member in field of interest for Zoom meetings throughout the internship
- Participation in introductory online seminars to learn about the various areas of the advancement profession
- CASE student membership for one year after the internship, accessing CASE webinars, the CASE Library and Career Central
- Regular communication post-internship on entry-level job postings and professional development opportunities

*Interns are responsible for travel and lodging/accommodations
